Wednesday 12th February

5:30pm – 7:00pm  Richard Steckel Public Lecture  Lecture Theater 1, HW Arndt Building 25a

Thursday

12:00pm  Registration  Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer
12:30pm – 1:00pm  Welcome to country & opening remarks  HW Arndt Lecture Theatre 1
1:00pm – 3:00pm  Parallel Sessions  HW Arndt Lecture Theatre 1 & 2

Session A  Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Water and the Making of the Urban Landscape: Lessons from History  Chair Lionel Frost & Martin Shanahan
Ruth A. Morgan - Monash University
The colonial violence of environmental encounters: swamp drainage and resistance in the Swan River Colony, Western Australia

Y. H. Phoeby Tang - University of Western Australia
Balancing water rights and industrial development: Hong Kong’s Toikoo Sugar Refinery, 1881-1910

Margaret Cook & Peter Spearritt - University of Queensland
Dam reliance: Warragamba and Winvehoe

Andrea Gaynor - University of Western Australia
‘Civic water’ in Australian cities

3:00pm – 3.30pm  Afternoon Tea  Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer
3:30pm – 4:30pm  Parallel Sessions  HW Arndt Lecture Theatre 1 & 2

Session A  Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

The West  Chair Cameron Gordon
John Hawkins - University of Canberra
‘No harm whatsoever’: the Centenary of the Brussels International Finance Conference of 1920

Cameron Gordon – Australian National University
Imperialism

Session B  Arndt Lecture Theatre 2

International  Chair Stephen Morgan
David Jacks - Simon Fraser University
Kevin H. O’Rourke NYU, Alan M. Taylor UC Davis
The Gravitational Constant?

Oyewale, Peter Oluwaseun - Ekiti State University
Gender Allotment and Indigenous Industrial Development in South-western Nigeria: a case of Women in Textile Production

Frida Brende Jenssen – Norwegian University of Science and Technology
Australian Mineral Policies in Papua New Guinea

Kris Inwood Guelph & Richard Steckel Ohio State University
Changes in the Well-being of Native Americans Born in the Northwest, 1830-1900

Policy implications of the Timber Creek decision
Asia Pacific Economic and Business History Conference
13th-15th February 2020
Research School of Economics, ANU, H W Arndt Building, Lecture Theatres 1 and 2

4:30pm – 5:15pm
Book Launch
John K. Wilson & Richard Pomfret
Historical Perspectives on Sports Economics

5:15pm –
EHSANZ

Friday
9:00am – 10:30am
Parallel Sessions

Session A
Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Native America Chair Sumner La Croix
Christian Dippel – University of California, Los Angeles
The Effect of Land Allotment on Native American Households during the Assimilation Era

R. Warren Anderson - University of Michigan-Dearborn
Politics, Economics, and Native American Conflicts

Les Oxley -University of Waikato
John Cranfield Guelph, Kris Inwood Guelph & Evan Roberts University of Minnesota
Long run changes in the body mass index of adults in tree food abundant settler societies: Australia, Canada and New Zealand.

10:30am – 11:00am
Morning Tea

11:00am – 12:30pm
Parallel Sessions

Session A
Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Cause and legacy of historical frontier violence in Australia Chair Edwyna Harris
Lyndall Ryan - University of Newcastle
An overview of the Colonial Frontier Massacres project

Donna Feir & Francis Markham - Australian National University
Quantitative analysis of the antecedents of massacres

Katherine Hunt - Griffith University
Historical Persistence of Xenophobia in Australia.

Session B
Arndt Lecture Theatre 2

Australian Business History Chair Neil Barnwell
Neil Barnwell - University of Technology Sydney
from ‘Ruinous Competition’ to Cartel: Australian shipping from 1800 to 1914

Ann Collins- Federation University
Making of eucalypt wood-pulp and paper in Australia and the coming of the chemists and engineers.

David Paynter- Swinburne University of Technology
Wool gave Australia a successful economy – what learning can Industry 4.0 leverage ?

10:30am – 11:00am
Morning Tea

11:00am – 12:30pm
Parallel Sessions

Session B
Arndt Lecture Theatre 2

Australian Business History Chair – Simon Ville
Andrew Parnell - Monash University
True liberal or pragmatic politician? Arthur Bruce Smith’s dilemma as liberalism warned in pre- and post-Federation Australia

Josh Woodward- University of Western Australia
Selling Scenery: Harold Clapp and the Promotion of Australian National Parks, 1890-1950.

Brian Scott -University of Wollongong
Enterprise and the economic development of Australia, 1860-1900
Asia Pacific Economic and Business History Conference
13th-15th February 2020
Research School of Economics, ANU, H W Arndt Building, Lecture Theatres 1 and 2

12:30pm – 1:30pm  Indigenous Lunch  Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer
1:30pm – 3:00pm  Parallel Sessions  HW Arndt Lecture Theatre 1 & 2

Session A
Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Indigenous demography and data in colonial Australia  Chair Boyd Hunter
Boyd Hunter – Australian National University
Noel Butlin’s real contributions to Indigenous demography in the early colonial period
Tandee Wang – Australian National University
Contents of half of Australia’s colonial censuses in relation to Indigenous peoples
Janet McDougall – Australian National University
Australian Data Archives
Boyd Hunter & Siddharth Shirodkar – Australian National University
Updating Radcliffe Brown’s map of population density and exploring potential applications

3:00pm – 3.30pm  Afternoon Tea  Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer

3:30pm – 4:30pm  Indigenous perspectives on economic history and colonization  HW Arndt Lecture Theatre 1

Matt Roskkruge – Massey University
Tony Dreise – Australian National University
Kerry Bodle – Griffith University

4:30pm – 5.00pm  Break  Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer
5:00pm – 6:30pm  Noel Butlin Lecture  T2, Upper Level, Cultural Centre
Deborah Oxley – University of Oxford
University Ave. Kambri ANU

7:00pm  Conference Dinner  Upper Level, Cultural Centre
University Ave. Kambri ANU
Sat 13th February 2020
Research School of Economics, ANU, H W Arndt Building, Lecture Theatres 1 and 2

9:00am – 11:00am

Session A
Arndt Lecture Theatre 1
Caught in the crossfire: economic and social aspects of active service Chair: John Wilson

John Wilson University of South Australia, Kris Inwood – Guelph & Hamish Maxwell-Stewart – University of Tasmania
Likelihood of surviving the WW1 conflict: evidence from Australian War Records

Nico Meffe, Kris Inwood – University of Guelph
Survival analysis of soldiers in the Canadian Expeditionary Force 1914-1918

Simon Ville - University of Wollongong
An overview of the economic effects of war: evidence from Vietnam and WW2 Australian experiences

Hamish Maxwell-Stewart - University of Tasmania
Kris Inwood – University of Guelph
The Impact of Punishment on Life Course Outcomes for Female Convicts in 19th-Century Australia.

9:00am – 11:00am

Session B
Arndt Lecture Theatre 2
Building Business in the Commonwealth: a systematic investigation into MNE business development in Commonwealth host markets Chair: Grietjie Verhoef

Pierre van der Eng - Australian National University
Beyond Liability of Foreignness: European Firms in Australia, 1850s-1880s.

Monica Keneley –Deakin University
“HOW THE SOUTH WON” BRITISH FIRE INSURERS IN AUSTRALIA 1860-1920

Pierre van der Eng ANU, Claire Wright Macquarie University & Simon Ville University of Wollongong
Did public policy shape the patterns of inward foreign direct investment in Australia?

David Merrett - University of Melbourne
Simon Ville - University of Wollongong
Pioneers of international business in Australia:

11:00am – 11:30am
Morning Tea

Building 25A, HW Arndt Foyer

11:30am – 1:30pm

Session A
Arndt Lecture Theatre 1
International – We note the cancellation of Stephen Morgan due to the corona virus outbreak.

Session B
Arndt Lecture Theatre 2
Building business in the Commonwealth: a systematic investigation into MNE business development in Commonwealth host markets Chair: Simon Ville

Jim McAlloon - University of Victoria
Multinational Enterprise in New Zealand

Grietjie Verhoef - University of Johannesburg
Into Africa. The MNE operations into South Africa

Martin Shanahan-University of South Australia
Zdravka Brunkova – University of South Australia
Foreign direct investment in Australia in the interwar period

Stefan Tetzlaff - Godrej Archives, Mumbai
New Business Ante Portas? Indo-British business deals